- Open Forum:
  - Braden Felts: I will be serving as the director of residence life for the upcoming school year and the president of the IRHA. I'm excited to get started working with you all. Any concerns you have please feel free to reach out.
- Adopting the Agenda:
  - Momaney: 2024-4-002 SG to Special Orders under 001 and add 2024-2-001 Y to the bottom of new business
    - Moved and seconded
  - Moved and seconded
- Approving the Minutes:
  - Moved and seconded
- Committee Reports:
  - Rules: If you are in Rules please see me after the meeting and if you are interested we have open seats so please come see me after the meeting. We will be polishing the bylaws this semester
  - Finance: still taking applications for the finance committee, hopefully, all of you will be confirmed by next week.
  - PR: PR had a very busy summer. Continue to update the website. Outreach will have consistent sponsor outreach events, two smaller and one larger each month. We will also have clubs that need our support such as AfterDark. We will be sending out some mass emails including a welcome back as well as the Expo. DIS was a hit and the raffle will be posted in the future. We want to fill all of the at-larges spots this year. A reminder you need two outreach credits as a senator. Templates will create a uniform Instagram page. A new LinkedIn account was also created and is being taken care of by Senator Snyder.
  - IDEA: The career fair will now be more international student-friendly. Please fill out the committee report if you are interested.

- Events: Busy planning the expo as well as the conference in October. The budget will be shown next week. Please fill out the qualtrics expo if you are a committee head so we can get things put together.
- Local Affairs: City council meetings were attended and a summer newsletter was sent out. There is a change in the electric bill so there will be a detailed explanation soon. The message the mayor program will be discussed today and I am still taking committee applications.
- Sustainability: We are still taking applications. We worked with the mayor and the recycling man and the director of sustainability. They are focused on recycling cardboard with the freshmen moving in. We are doing a lot of background research to hit the ground running.
- Health & Wellness: Still accepting committee applications. Senator Sphan is working on creating a sexual assault program during the retreat. I am working with the Symposium committee to plan this, I encourage you to attend breakout sessions.
- Legislative Ambassadors: attended the board of regents meeting to build relationships with them. We will have an event with them to continue to build rapport.
- Other:
  - CyRide: bus stands in Friley. They have a million dollars in surplus and we should be thinking about what we want to do with that in the future.
- Comments from the Executive Branch:
  - You will be meeting our nominee Claire tonight,
- Advisor:
  - Splitting up duties to help to better support you
  - Any of us can help you if you have questions, please feel free to reach out
- Judicial Branch:
  - The chief justice in the process of filling up open spots
  - Will be meeting soon
- Special Orders:
  - 2024-2-001 SC:

- Not new to student government
- Clair Hosh, pre-law track
- Legislative ambassador
- Well-equipped to serve students
- Advocated for students at the capitol
- Member of Kappa Delta, panhellenic delegate
  - Attends regular meetings and is a member of her chapter council
- Ready and eager to bridge people in student government
- All branches of government function smoothly
- Communicate, and then communicate even more
- Gopa: What will you do if people do not do their work?
  - You tell them again, you have to commit to your role so it's about confrontation and making sure they follow through with that.
- Gope: How will you follow up?
  - I will make sure I'm in the know and will periodically check in, I will not leave people hanging.
- Gopa: What are your other time commitments?
  - I arranged to drop one of my classes so I can fill this role well. I enjoy being busy and fulfilling this role.
- Sydney Jones: How did you hear about this position?
  - It was through Martin. We had a meeting and it is right up my alley.
- Azhan: Did you share the open position with student government members, and the body, or how was your process?
  - Hursh: I wanted to limit the card shuffling within student government. She is committed, hardworking, and smart as well as having experience. We kept Claire in mind after her interview for a separate role
- Sydney Jones: I am a bit confused how you know who is right for the role if you don't hold interviews?

- Hursh: Claire has the attributes we were looking for. We talked to other applicants and Claire was the right person
  - Azhan: Did Claire participate in those interviews?
    - Hursh: Yes, she interviewed for the director of governmental affairs
  - Axhan: So you did not conduct interviews for the chief of staff?
    - Hursh: Yes we did
  - Placard Vote:
    - 23-0-4
- 2024-2-001 SG:
  - Snyder: I am a PR major and aware of strategic communication. I want consistency within our messaging. I have been working hard on the LinkedIn this summer
  - Pallan: I have been working in production my whole life and it has always been a passion of mine. I want to put my efforts towards this. I have already been working this summer.
  - Gopa: how will you stay financially fiscal?
    - Synder: Our fund is large but our director has already discussed how to cut costs and has worked with Finance to draw out our budget.
    - Pallan: we have been very conservative this year with the budget allotted
  - Pursley: I would like to make a friendly to change 002 to 001
    - Accepted
  - Kammeyer: You have been unofficially part of the committee. Can you go in-depth about what you have worked on over the summer?
    - Pallan: I have been working on getting the website going and hopefully getting drone shots
    - Synder: I have been working on the LinkedIn and will be working on the social media aspect
- New Business:

- 2024-2-001 F
  - Director of Academic Affairs: It was done before the summer, and now we are bringing it in the fall. We want people to be able to volunteer so people can pay back their parking tickets. The University of Arkansas has a similar program that has worked.
    - Gopa: objection to waive first read
      - Kammeyer: object, withdraw
      - Holliday: objection
        - We are trying to build a culture of waiving first read unnecessarily. We should be excited, but we also need to engage how we are supposed to.
      - Gopa: Withdrawn
    - Kammeyer: There are predetermined hours, do you know what they are?
      - Yes
    - Kammeyer: can you guarantee that none of these will be over three hours?
      - Yes
    - Syndey Jones: Could a full parking ticket be paid for?
      - Yes
- 2024-2-002 F:
  - Boland: Will be on the website under special projects.
    - Bridging the gap between the students and the city, everything will be discussed during the meetings, all will be taken to council. Designated time for each meeting for comments to the council.
    - We will get posters out so we can notify students that this program is open
- 2023-2-003 F:
  - Azhan: working on over the summer, there is no drinking fountain on the fields by MWL where people play soccer. I have reached out to ISU rec and confirmed the location

- 2023-2-004 F:
  - Schmidt: The second annual expo is coming up. We will have a tent for each committee as well as tables and weights.
  - Azhan: We don't have tables from the previous expo?
    - No
- 2024-2001 Y:
  - Read and ask questions before next week
- Closing Announcements:
  - Spahn: We passed a bill to implement a changing table in the MU and that was installed successfully in July and there is an article released in the Daily that credited student government. Thank you to all who helped.
  - Margrett: The expo is an event that is effective and there is a sign-up from MIS and finalizing the retreat detail so expect an email with details. There are applications for the external committees if you are interested, you will have to reapply
  - Pursley: Please have a consistent office hour and email me with the time you'd like to have
  - Momaney: I will have more details on our working meeting soon, it will have to do with the new Pathway program. Please reach out if you need help finding a committee.
