- 2024-2-006 SG:
 - Alex: thinks this is an important committee and wants to help build a website and wants to be an asset
 - Lauren: Was on the committee previously, helped with events last semester
 - Julius: Sustainability is important, boy scout nature is important
 - Pursley: Do you have any ideas?
 - Lauren: I think we should have the Jack Trice banner should be turned off in the off-season and put it on a time so we conserve energy
 - Alex: I'm still orienting myself on the committee and I want to help them spread the word through the website
 - Julius: I am new to this, I want to implement a bike share and a recycling bottle exchange
 - Passed by way of unanimous consent
- 2024-2-002 SC:
 - Dylan: political science major, returning student started in 2016, then dropping out and having a better connection to make a change. I decided I will be going to Iowa for law school, I want to be on the Supreme Court for the experience, I want to have that impact on things I think are important
 - Abby: Political science and criminal justice majors, involved in the political science club and an intern with health and wellness. I have a passion for the judicial branch specifically to better understand the importance of impartiality
 - Jeffery: Junior in industrial and agricultural system technology, I plan to attend law school and think it would give a unique exposure to politics at a much smaller scale
 - Passed by way of unanimous consent
- 2024-2-003 SC:

- Santi, political science major and the current treasurer
- Needs a new direction to make it a more professional organization
- Makes election commission and senate more connected
- Working with the slates to make sure no violations occur, including a new weekly meeting so that the campaigns are met with
- Bylaws becoming more specific concerning the campaign
- Kammayer: What would the plan be for the treasurer?
 - Currently looking for the position, sent out a mass email with about 15 responses and we are currently interviewing potentials
 - Hoping to have a nominee within the next couple weeks
- Momaney: Can you tell us about your previous experience?
 - Treasurer last year, managed the finance
 - Supplies, candies, etc.
 - Served on the violation committee
- Azhan: Could you talk about the challenges and your strategy?
 - Not being on the same page on the slates, so our plan is to have weekly meeting so we can be on the same page to avoid arguments
 - Not present enough within student government, want to bridge that by being present and taking notes, and hoping to be at expo so we can build it up again
- Placard Vote:
 - 20-0-0
- 2024-2-006 F:
 - Pursley: Who are the 6 people we are paying for their plane tickets?
 - They refer to the 6 schools we believe are flying
 - Azhan: Could you talk about the website creation?
 - The website has already been created through conference planning and management
 - Sydney Jones: What is the difference between airport transportation and shuttles?
 - Transportation is from DSM airport to campus, and the shuttles are from the hotel to the MU
 - Gopa: What's the 750 dollar fee on china?
 - Those are the plates from the MU for the formal dinner
 - Gopa: We're paying student engagement for the website?
 - No, we paid conference planning and management as we did not have an IT director this summer
 - Azhan: What do you mean by pay by organization?
 - 500$ is coming from a scholarship from Discover Ames and then the rest is from the expected revenue and the airport transportation will be paid for on Marketplace

- Roll Call Vote:
 - 20-0-0
- 2024-2-007 F:
